

APPENDICES

A. The Vellum Documents at the Toyo Bunko: From Arrival to Conservation

1. The boxed Vellum Documents on their arrival at the Toyo Bunko.

2. Document I (Folded in a tall strip).

3. Document IV (Folded in a tall strip).

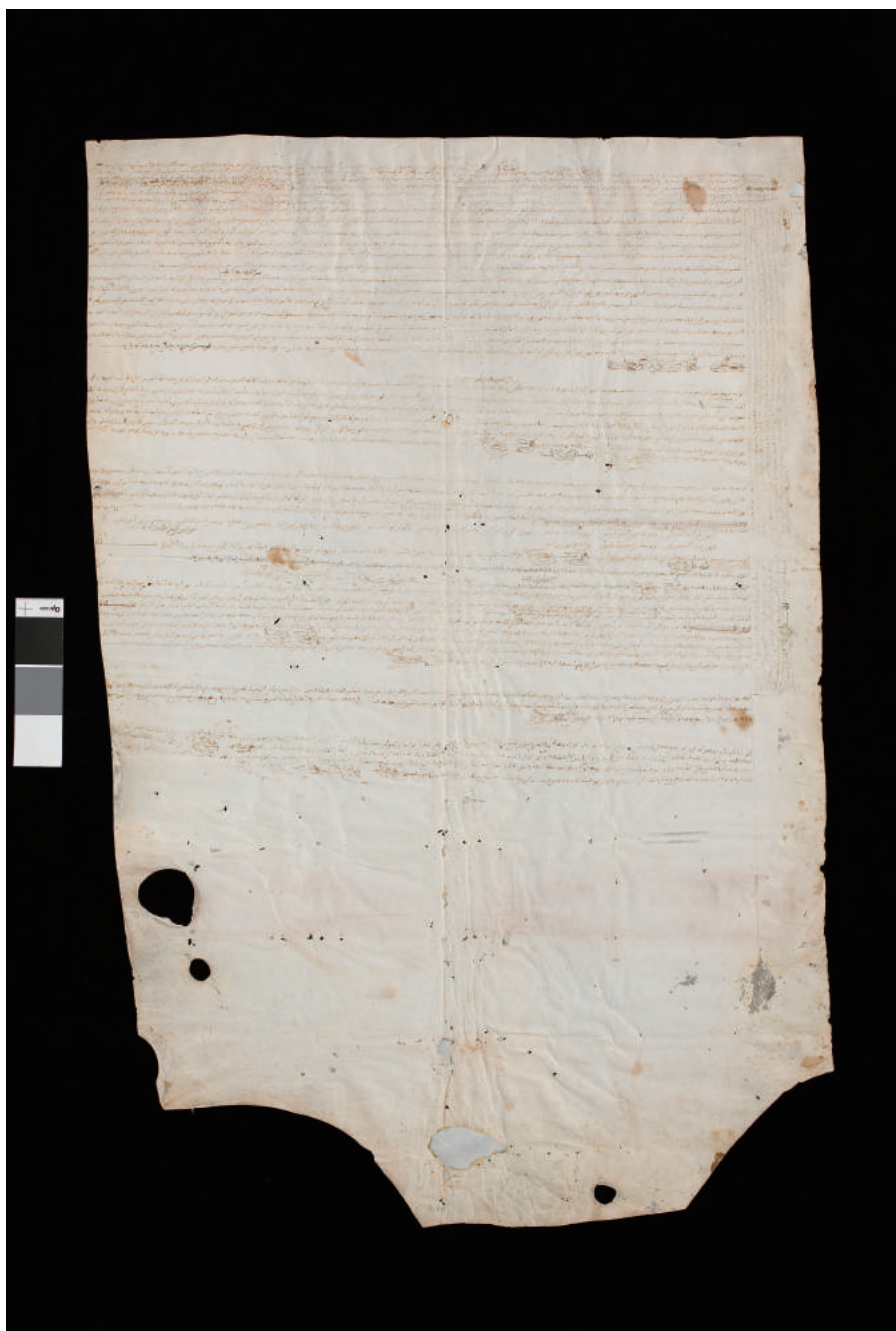

The Arabic title of the document (جنان الحبالات بن عزز) was written on the surface.

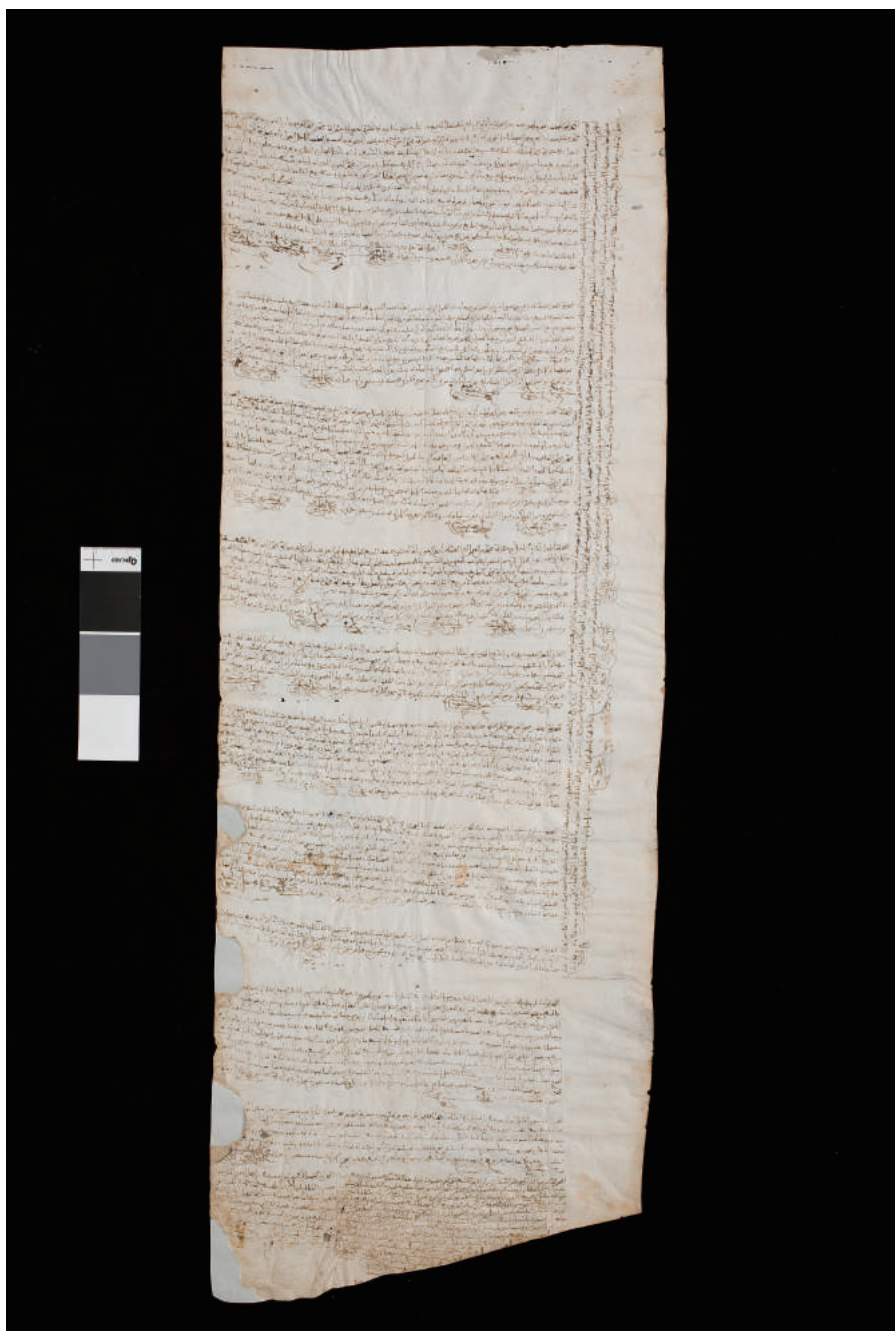

4. Document I immediately after unfolding. It had been folded into two vertically.

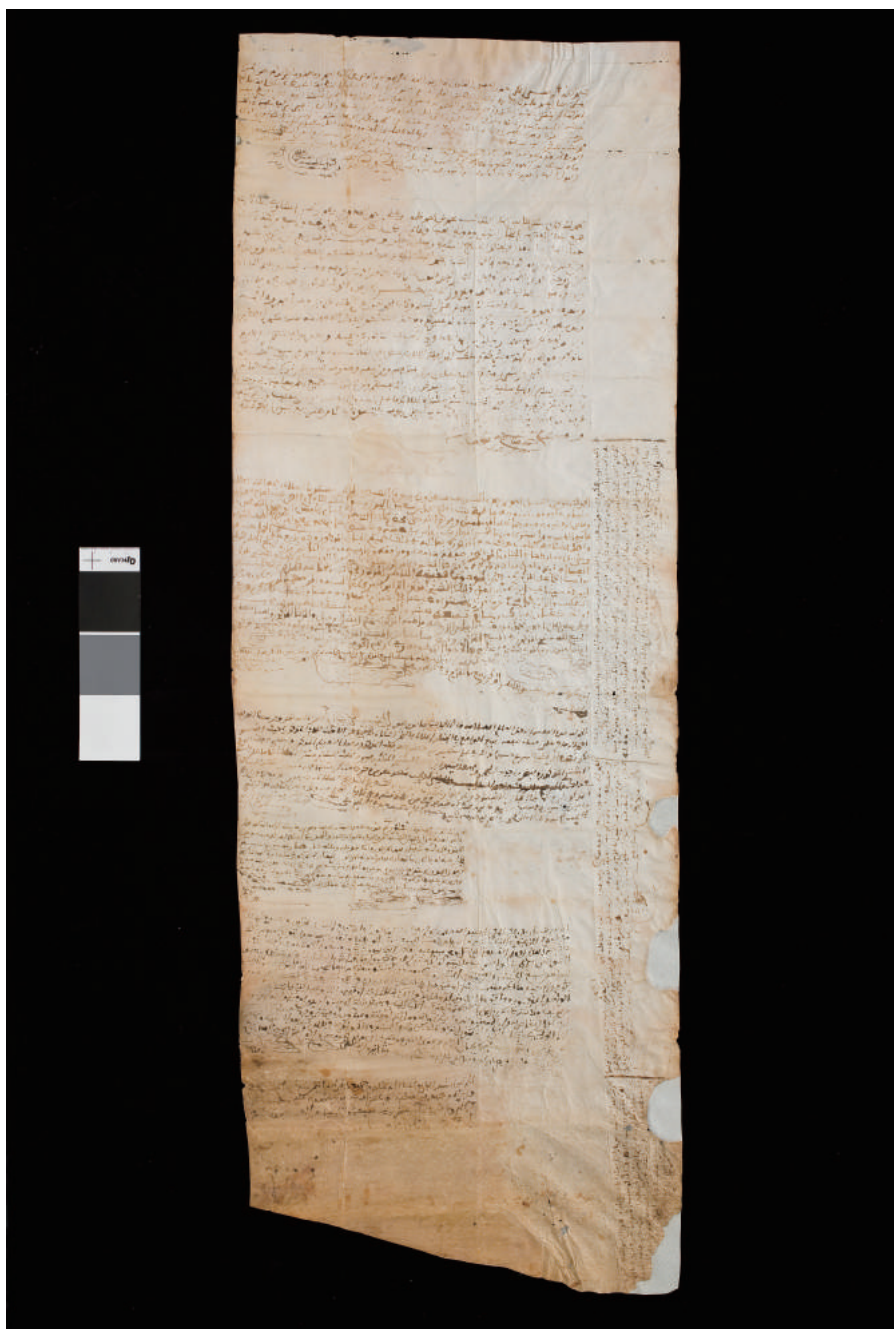

5. Rear of Document I. Each document was restored and stretched out into a flat sheet, and both sides were photographed. The Arabic title of the document (رسوم دار درب بن حيون) was written on the darker strip on the right-hand side.

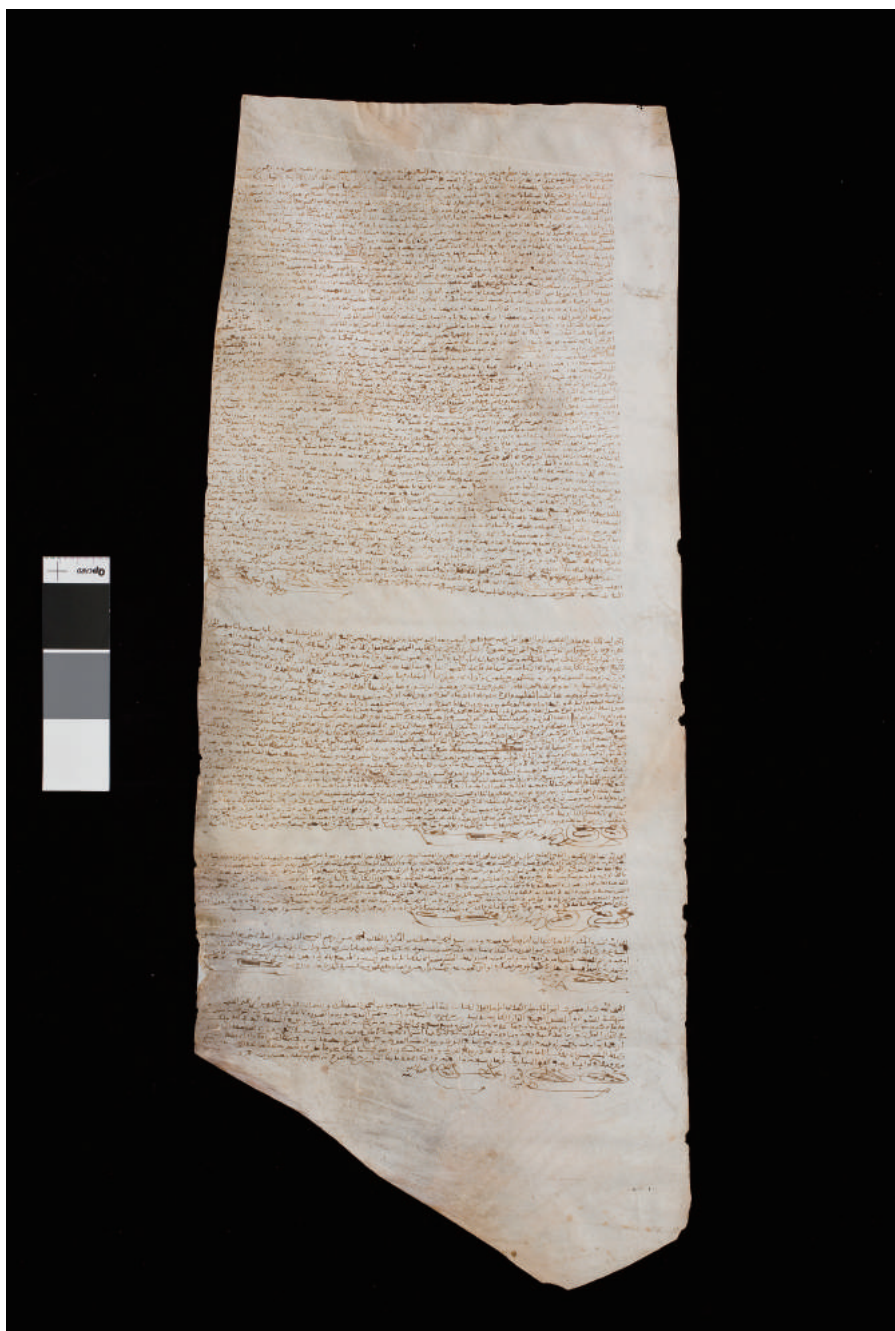

6. Document I, facing side.

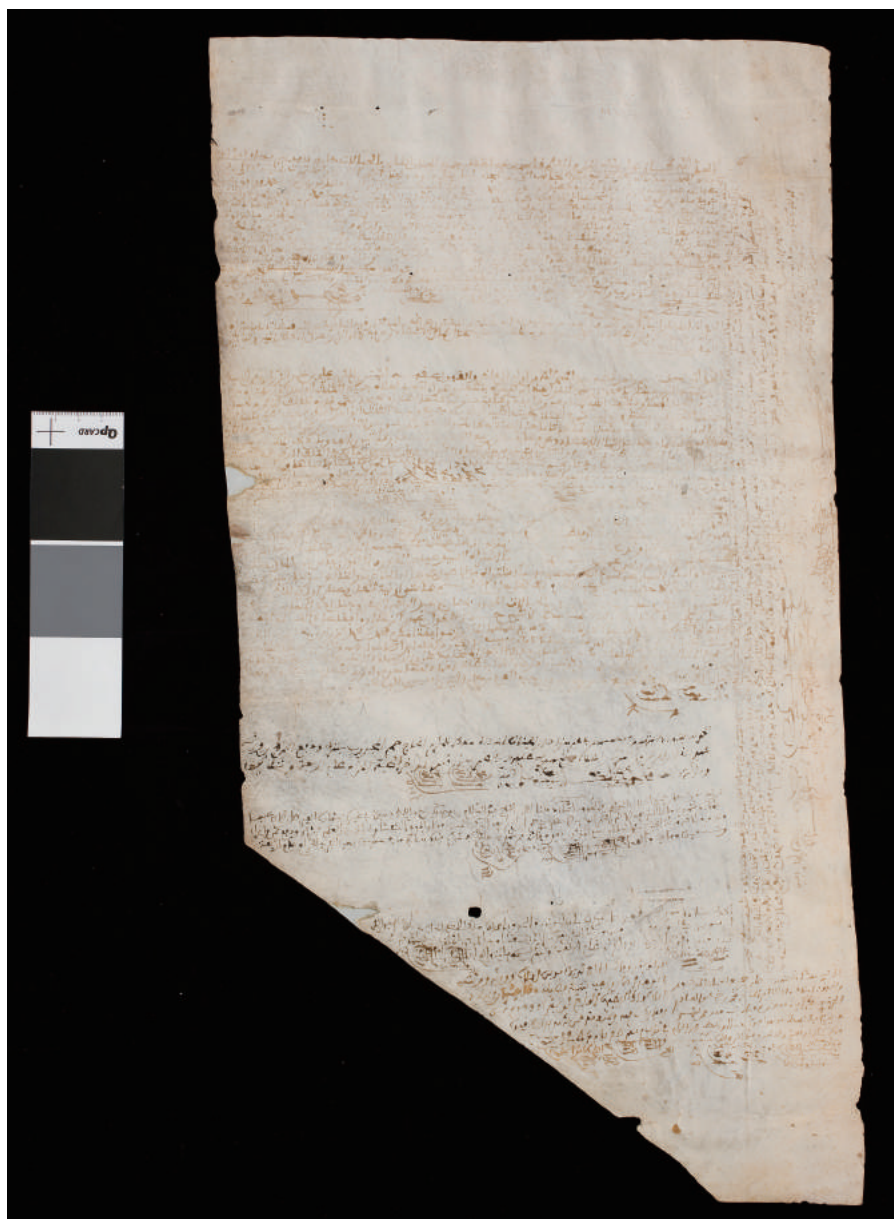

7. Document II, facing side.

8. Document II, rear side.

9. Document III, facing side.

10. Document IV, facing side.

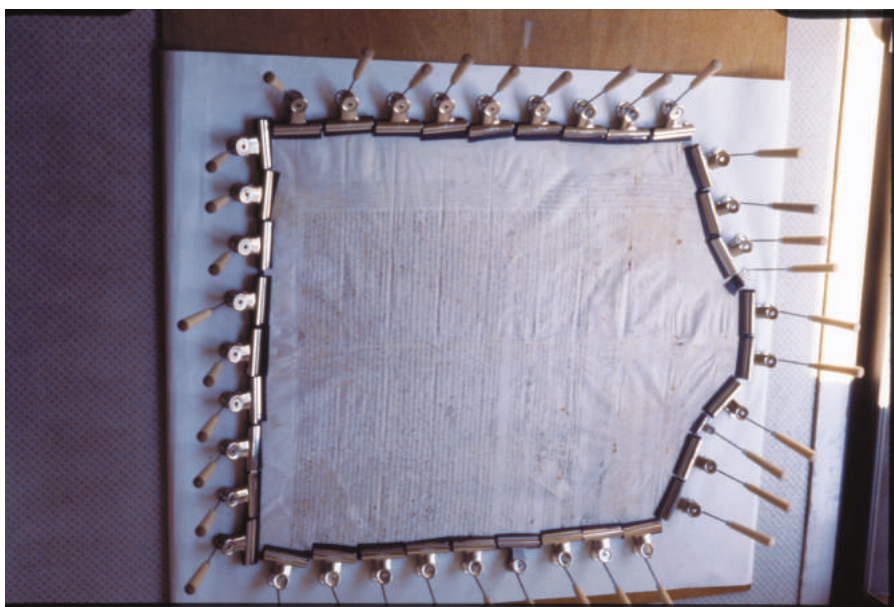

11. Document V (Folded in a tall strip).

12. Document V immediately after unfolding (facing side). It was folded into four vertically.

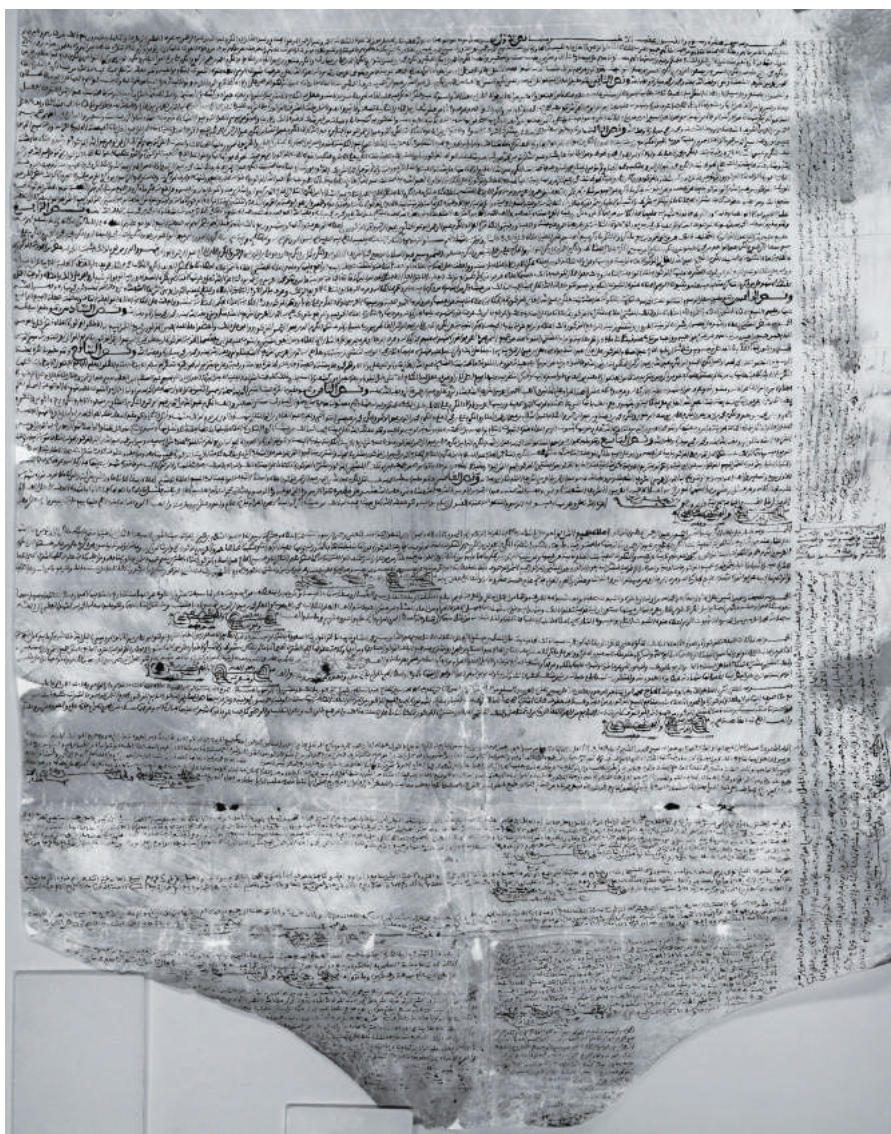

13. Document V immediately after unfolding (rear side).

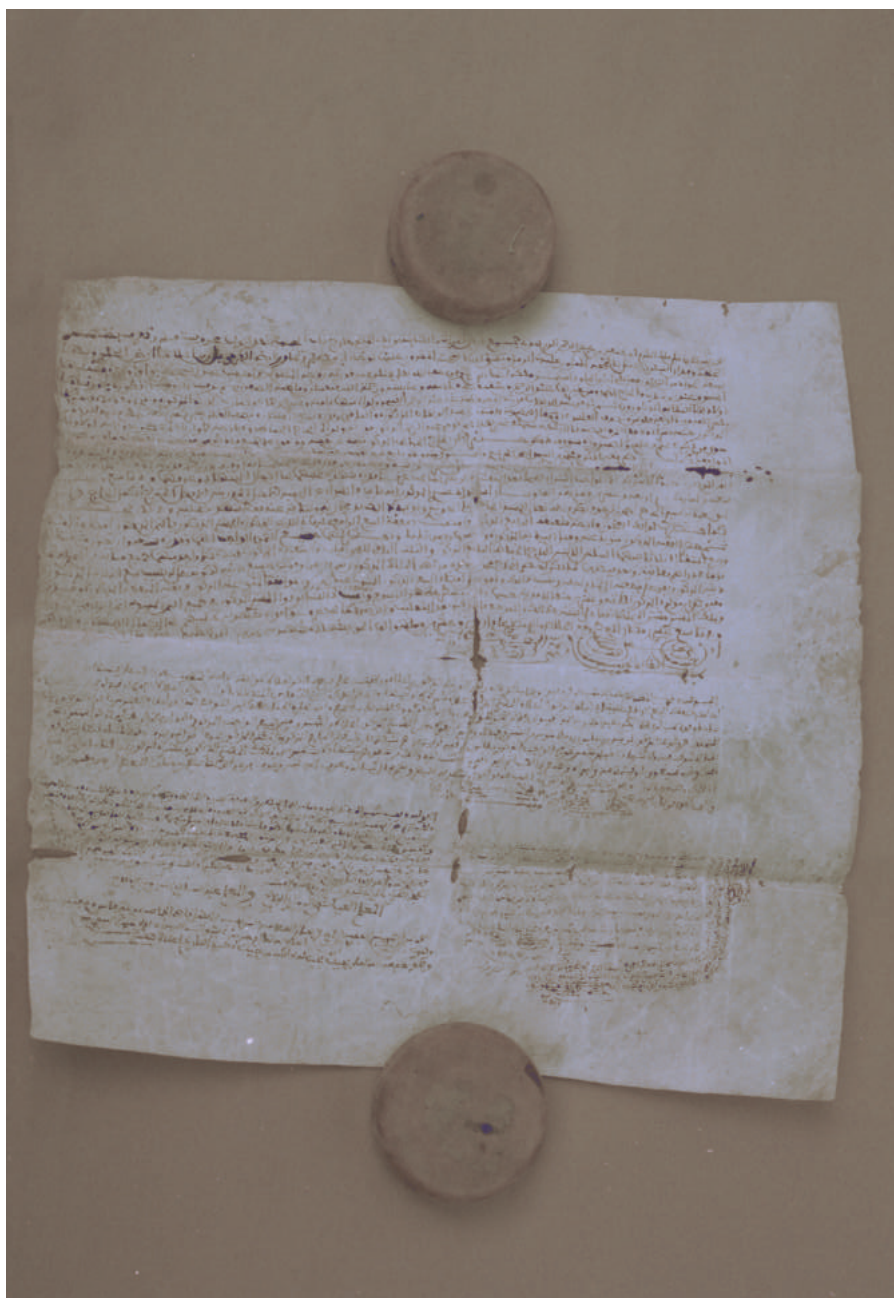

14. Document V when it was stretched out.

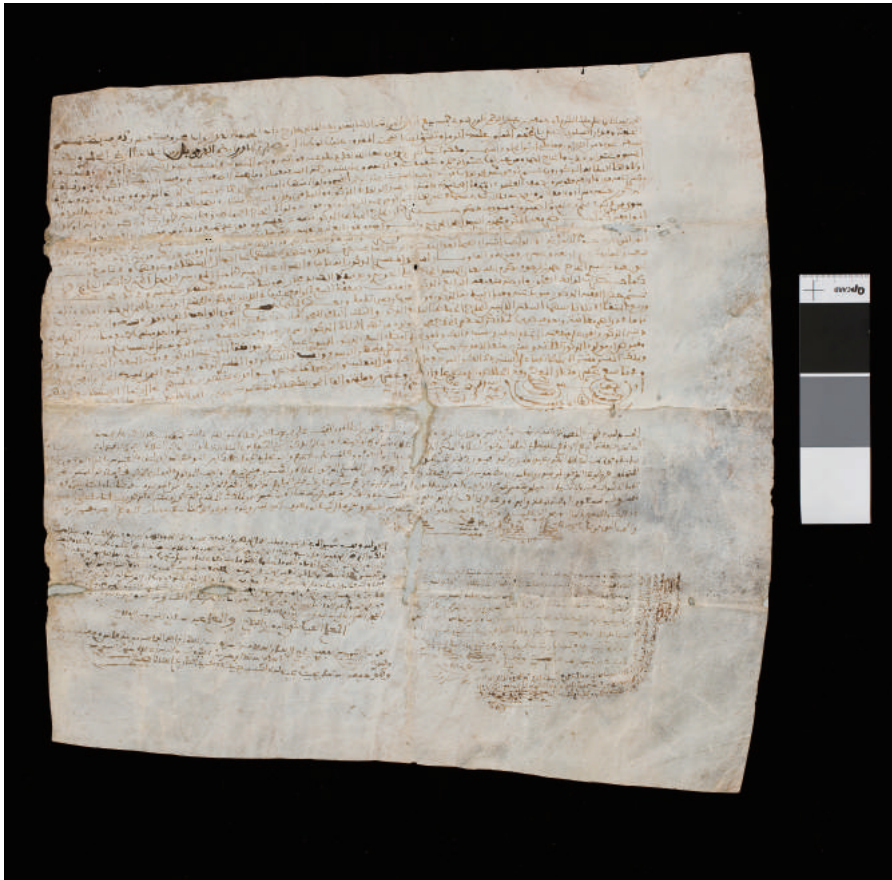

15. Document V, facing side.

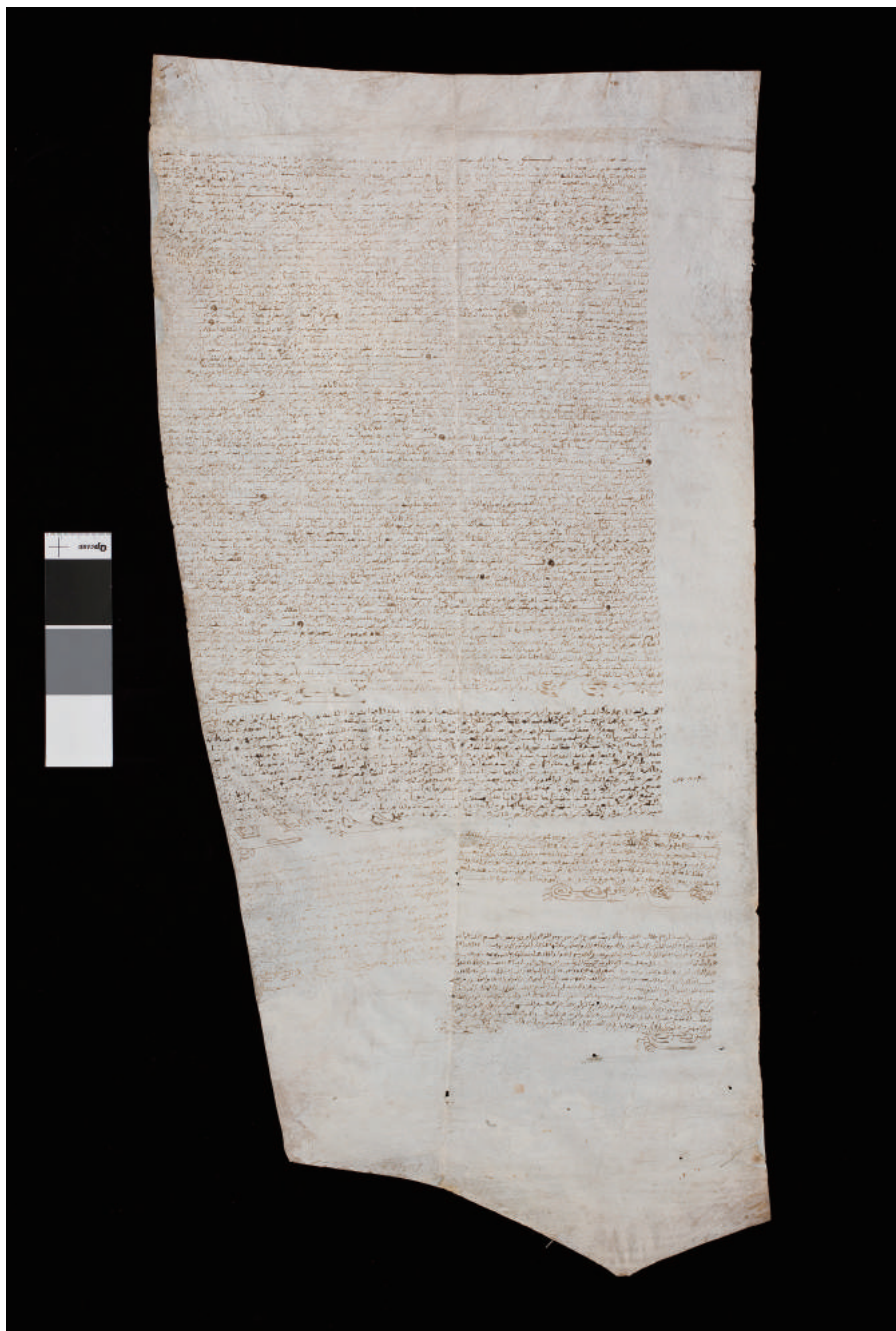

16. Document V, facing side (ultraviolet photograph).

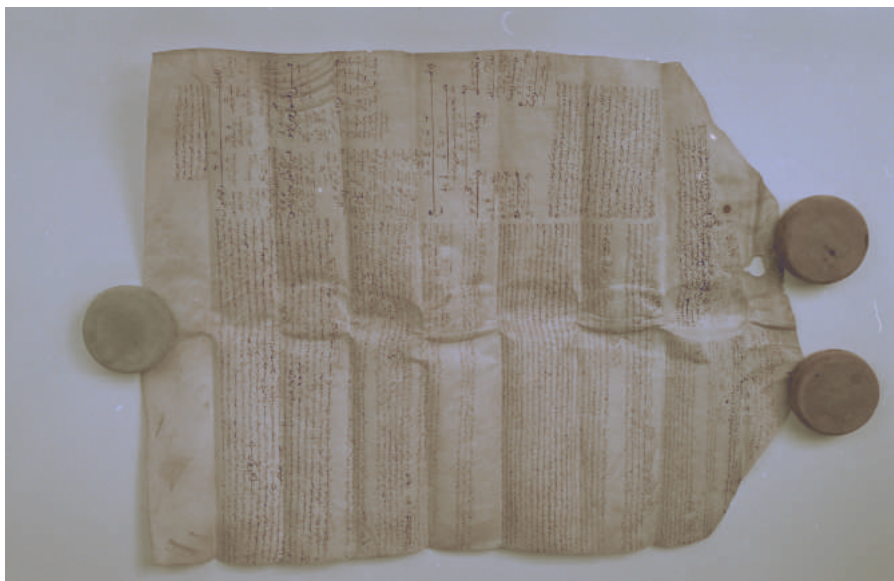

17. Document VI immediately after unfolding (facing side). There were some tears/slits.

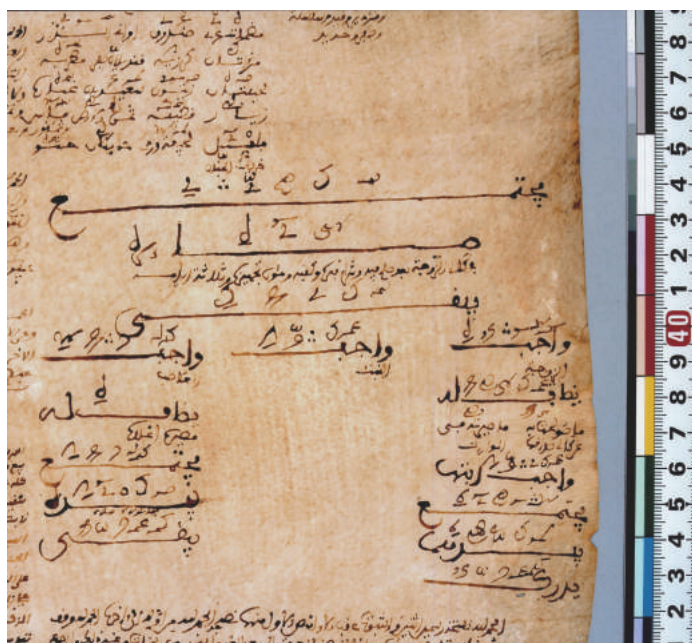

18. Document VI, facing side. The tears were mended by pasting with Japanese paper.

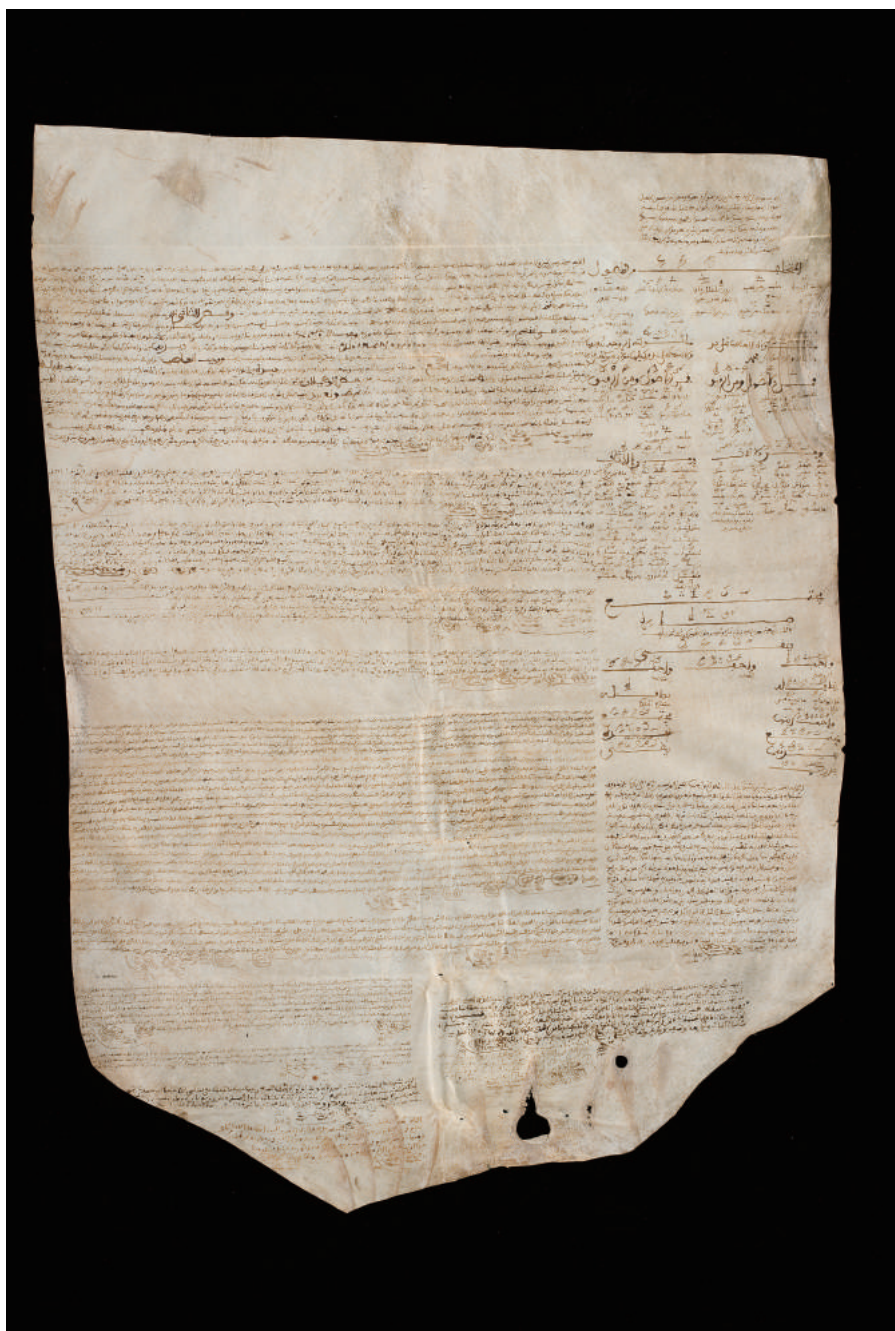

19. Document VII, facing side.

20. Document VIII immediately after unfolding (facing side). It was folded into two vertically.

21. Fāṣī numerals in the inventory on the margin of Document VIII.

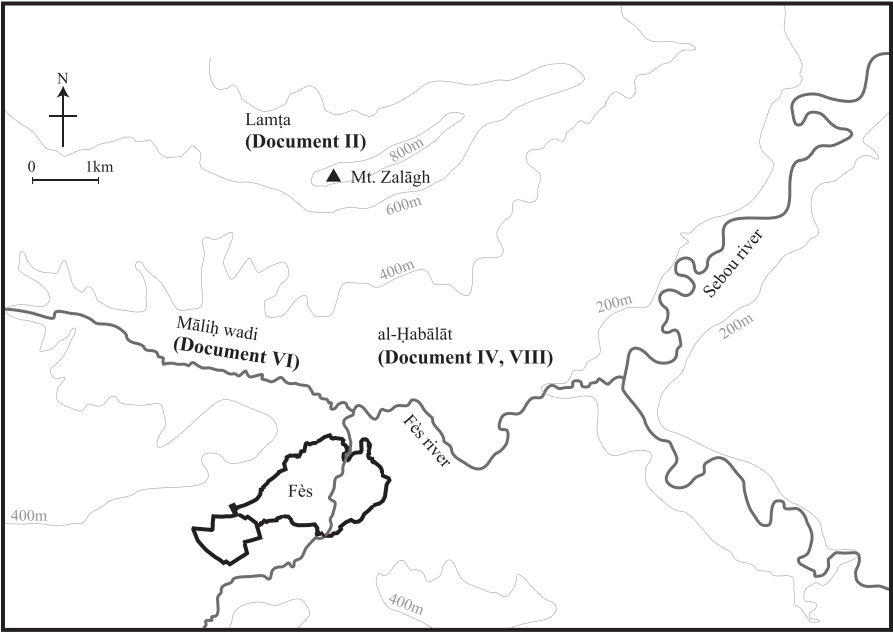

22. Document VIII, facing side.

B. Maps

1. City of Fès

2. Environs of Fès