

Articles

Conferences
& Lectures

Research
Activities

Toyo Bunko Series of Researches on Asian Materials, 2016
The 100th Anniversary of Acquisition of Dr. G.E. Morrison Collection: The Objective and Significance of Paper Research
New Aspect of Codicology: Scientific Study of Paper, Printing, and Publication

* This project was carried out through a special subvention from the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sport, Science, and Technology for the year 2016

Program

PART ONE Special Lecture

Date : Jan. 27, 2017

Time : 15:30–17:30

Anna-Grethe Rischel (Paper Conservator Emerita, International Association of Paper Historians President)

“The historical significance of researching European paper with and without watermarks and its technological development”

PART TWO Workshop

9:30–10:00 Hamasita Takeshi (Research Department Head, Toyo Bunko)

Opening Address (Gist Description)

10:00–10:45 Ishizuka Harumichi (Research Fellow, Toyo Bunko; Professor Emeritus, Hokkaido University)

“Quality of Paper and the Rank of Books—Case study of Chinese and Japanese Manuscripts and Books”

10:45–11:30 Enami Kazuyuki (Research Fellow, Toyo Bunko; Professor Emeritus, Ryukoku University)

“Comparative study of paper used for European Books and Asian Books of premodern period”

11:30–12:10 Nakanishi Yasuhito (Curator, Printing Museum, Tokyo)

“Why the invention of letterpress printing has brought about the media revolution?”

13:10–15:00 Panel Discussion

Paneler: Anna-Grethe Rischel, Ishizuka Harumichi, Enami Kazuyuki, Nakanishi Yasuhito

Facilitator: Hamasita Takeshi